

1. Think back over the activity and note specific examples of each of the following, giving the reasons for your views. Feel free to give examples from your own or others' contributions to the group.

Effective communications	Why you think it was effective

Ineffective communications	Why you think it was ineffective

When individuals didn't communicate their ideas or thoughts at the appropriate time	Your reasoning

Times when a group member tried to communicate their thoughts or ideas, but some others did not appear to give attention to, show interest in, understand or respond to this person

i)

i)

2. Which of the examples you have noted are similar to things you see happening in your daily life?

3. How does each affect you and your colleagues?

